Charles Martin stuns senior riders to take huge win.

Fifteen year old Charles Martin gave us all a glimpse of his potential with a stunning win in the A Grade 40 lap scratch race at Marty Busch on Thursday. After 10 laps of relative quiet it was Matt Smith, Angus Riddoch and Martin who broke away from the strong A Grade field and quickly built a half lap lead. At about 15 laps Ciaran Conaughton made a brave move to bridge the gap and at one point it looked like he would make it – only to fall tantalisingly short and then blow up and not only out of the chase but out of the race! At about 25 laps Riddoch threw in the towel with the pace just too hot and not enough riders up front to share the load. The gap remained at about 140m but the two leaders still appeared strong. Scott Keating, Dean Taylor and Joel Macallister were determined to not give in and when Smith blew it looked like it might all come back together. Martin had other ideas however and once he realised he was on his own it was a sign to go for broke and by lap 35 he had reeled in the entire field. Martin took the win with Smith and Macallister filling the minor placings.
