Cool and windy conditions met the 33 riders who took part in Ballarat Sebastopol track racing last Thursday evening. With many of the club's stronger riders absent as they prepared themselves for some of the biggest track meets of the year – the Austral Wheelrace and Junior Austral, both to be held at the Hisense Arena (formerly Vodafone Arena) this Saturday, as well as the Oceania Time Trial and Road Championships in Geelong, it was an opportunity for the club's less experienced riders to grab the spotlight.

Wins were spread across a large number of riders with only Sam Smith, Harriet Pickersgill, and Paul Amos doubling up for two victories. It was particularly pleasing to see the large number of new riders down at the track with even more expected over the coming weeks. Riders are reminded that entries are now due for both the state club teams championships and the club track championships – both events to be held during March.
