A beautiful warm night drew riders in big numbers to the Ballarat Sebastopol track last Thursday. With the Austral Wheelrace out of the way some of our most senior riders returned to the track and ensured outstanding racing. In the lower grades Clancy Dickson stood out as a junior rider to be watched with 3 strong wins. However the racing was tight and others to impress included Emily and Olivia Oliver, Tristan Vermeend and Harriet Pickersgill. Dylan Bilston returned to his blistering best with clever riding and bursts of impressive acceleration that led to 2 good wins in E Grade whilst

Madeleine Plastow was too strong for the other riders in D Grade. Todd Shalders, Molly Hegert and Angus Lyons shared the honours in C Grade and Ararat rider Tom Hamilton showed genuine class in B Grade before moving up a grade. Callum Bodie quickly filled the void with a brilliant win in the long Motor Pace.

In A Grade it was a show down between Keirl and Crothers-Bade, fresh from their Austral successes, Adelaide Institute of Sport rider Rhys Gillett and in form masters rider Matt Smith. With temperatures staying high right to the end and pizza supplying all the nourishment a rider needs it was one of the best nights at the track for many months. We look forward to seeing even more numbers down there next week and at the Club Championships which start on Thursday March 5.
