Strong fields across all grades made for a great night of racing at Marty Busch reserve on Thursday March 26. With so many new riders making the transition from recreational riding to the competitive grades we saw F Grade numbers swell to 17 very competitive racers. Relative newcomers Tom Driden and Kate Walker really served it up to their more experienced opponents. Strong performances from Clancy Dickson and Harriet Pickersgill saw them take home good wins. E Grade results were shared between the younger boys whilst it was the girls who dominated D Grade. Fine racing between Emma Bilston, Victoria Snibson and Madeleine Plastow had the crowd paying close attention. Liam White dropped back to C Grade and continued his winning form whilst Conor Dickson took two good wins. A and B Grade combined for a messy but exciting 50 lap madison which was dominated by the strong pair of Jonathan Lacey and Rhys Gillet. The B Grade support race came down to the wire with Callum Bodie taking out the final sprint to win 9 points to 8 over the fast improving James Crafter.
