Race description:

In his opening road race with Ballarat Sebastopol cycling club, Craig Firman held out from limit to take a win in the 15km Junior A grade race around the dry lake bed of Learmonth in summer conditions. With gusty warm northerly winds around 50km/h and temperatures in the low 30° C the conditions were less than ideal, nonetheless Firman held off firmly, a strong sprint by scratch man Joshua Liston. Returned road campaigner Edward Lawrie was caught by Liston in the final few kilometres of his, from their Liston took second and fastest time.

Jack Walker debuted to road racing with the BSCC in the junior 6km out and back along the Learmonth avenue of honour. Walker and the strong field of ten could not match Connor Carey who took another win. Declan Dickson as scratch who wanted Carey in his run to the line missed by ten seconds to take second and fastest. Sean Cureton paired as scratch came in as third.
